Snow in the City of Jerusalem

It is winter (חורף) in the city of Jerusalem. Children want the snow to come. It is cold today in Jerusalem. It is so cold people say it will snow. The children are so happy. If it snows tomorrow, (מחר) there will be no class. The kids will be at home. It will be a snow day.

In the morning (בקר) the children see (רואים) snow from the window. It is snowing hard. They want to walk in the snow. They want to play in the snow. They plan to make a big snowman.

"Ima, can we play in the snow?" the children ask.

"OK. Pray, make an egg sandwich, and drink milk. Then you may play in the snow all day," Ima said.

The kids do the things fast and run to the snow. They walk and run in the snow. They can't run fast. There is a lot of snow. They make a snowman. They throw (זורקים) snowballs at their friends. It is fun to play in the snow. At two they come home. They are wet and cold. They know playing in the snow was fun but it is wet and cold.

The next day the children get up and they are not well. They are sick. They can't go to class. They must stay in bed and drink hot drinks. "Refua shlema!" Ima said.
