Mendi's Joy

Mendi's joins the library. His joy is to go to the library. He loves to read many books. He turns the books' pages (מדפדף), page by page, and reads quickly. He likes to read comics too. He never spoils the books. He takes care of the books, reads them fast and returns (מחזיר) them on time. Mendi likes to read books about many countries. He likes to read about coins and stamps.

The man at the library desk, the librarian, has a beard. The librarian shows Mendi and his friends picture books. He tells them the library rules: If the kids don't bring back the books on time, they have to pay a few coins. Kids can't bring toys to the library. The library is a place for quiet reading, but not talking. They can also do math homework in the library.

Here are the rules for people who come to the library.

Library Rules:

1. Please be quiet in the library.
2. Take care of the books.
3. Put the books back on the shelves when you finish reading.
