A Rainy Day in Jerusalem

Natan, Dani and Mendi call Saba. Saba tells them, "It's raining in Jerusalem. Come for the day." Ima says they may (מותר להם). The kids take a train (רכבת) to Jerusalem for the day. They take jackets and umbrellas for the rain, so they aren't afraid of the rain.

Saba gets the kids from the train and they take a bus to the Kotel. "Jerusalem is beautiful (יפה מאד) in the rain," the kids say. It is fun to ride a bus to the Kotel. They tell jokes on the bus. They get to the Kotel just in time to pray (להתפלל). The day is gray (אפור) and there is no sun but Jerusalem is busy and many people are at the Kotel.

After they pray, they play. They run and jump in a park near the Kotel. The sun shines and they take off their jackets. Then they take a bus to the Botanical Gardens at the University (הגן הבוטני באוניברסיטה). There are many beautiful plants there. They pass by the ducks in the lake. It starts to rain again but not hard (חזק), so they open their umbrellas. They go for a snack and a hot drink and sit on chairs by a small table.

Just as it gets dark (נהיה חושך), Saba takes the kids by bus back (בחזרה) to the train. They take the train home. It was a fun day in Jerusalem with Saba!
