Clothing for Natan's Bar Mitzva

Natan's bar mitzva is coming up. He needs a suit (חליפה) for the party. Abba takes Natan to a suit store to get a suit for his bar mitzva party. Abba and Natan arrive at the small store but it is not open. Next they go to a big store. There are many people in that store. There are bar mitzva kids and there are many abbas. They all want to buy suits, shirts, pants, belts, shoes and socks. Natan tries on (מודד) a black suit. It is too small. He tries on another black suit. It is too long. Finally he tries on a suit that is just right.

Abba gets a nice white shirt and some socks for Natan. Then Natan finds a belt and next he tries on shoes. "Abba, I have all the clothing I need except a hat," Natan said.

"We will get a hat tomorrow. It is late and it is past your bedtime," Abba said.

"Thank you, Abba, for getting me all the clothing for my bar mitzva." Natan said.

"Tomorrow we will get the hat and also the tefillin for you. Then you will be ready, both for your bar mitzva and for the party," Abba said. "You will dress like a man!"
